Referred to:

A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF DOUGLAS YATES YONGUE, FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Whereas, Douglas Yates Yongue was born March 20, 1937, in Lumberton, North Carolina, to Robert Eugene Yongue, Jr., and Elizabeth Gibson Yongue; and

Whereas, Doug Yongue graduated from Laurinburg High School in 1955, then furthered his education by attending Edwards Military Institute, where he received an associate degree in 1957, and East Carolina University, where he earned a Bachelor's of Science degree in Industrial Arts in 1959 and a master's degree in Industrial Arts and Administration in 1960. He later obtained a Ph.D. in Education from Nova University in 1986; and

Whereas, Doug Yongue served as a teacher, coach, principal, and superintendent for 33 years. He was also a real estate agent and a licensed contractor who built and renovated many homes in Scotland County and other nearby communities; and

Whereas, Doug Yongue was an accomplished woodworker, who spent many hours in his workshop building furniture, cutting boards, wine racks, quilt racks, and many other quality items; and

Whereas, Doug Yongue was appointed to the North Carolina House of Representatives in 1994 and went on to serve with honor and distinction for eight terms until 2011. He was a member of numerous committees, including Education, Ethics, Rules, and Appropriations, of which he served as cochair; and

Whereas, during his tenure in the legislature, Doug Yongue focused on issues relating to education and was especially supportive of legislation that helped improve educational opportunities for students in rural areas of the State. He worked with members on both sides of the aisle to help improve the State's education laws and, at one time, set up a meeting space outside of his office to provide a place, during legislative sessions, for lobbyists and other stakeholders to gather and discuss education issues; and

Whereas, Doug Yongue was actively engaged with the Public School Forum of North Carolina, serving many years on its Board of Directors and Executive Committee; and

Whereas, after retiring from the General Assembly, Doug Yongue, a humble, kind man who valued his relationships with people, kept in touch with friends in Laurinburg, Raleigh, and Washington, D.C., and participated in events in those places as often as he could; and

Whereas, Doug Yongue served his community and the State in many other capacities, including serving as a member of the Lumberton and Laurinburg Rotary Clubs, Phi Delta Kappa, United Methodist Men, Southeastern Regional Education Board, North Carolina Home Builders Association, Board of Trustees of Robeson Community College, Southeastern Cancer Institute Board of Trustees, and Scotland County Democratic Party, of which he was chair; and

Whereas, Doug Yongue received numerous awards and recognitions, including the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award from St. Andrews Presbyterian College in 2009, Distinguished
