If the call is sustained by one-fifth of the members present, the question shall 8 be decided by the ayes and noes upon a roll call vote. 9 (b) Every member who is in the Hall of the House when the question is put shall 10 vote upon a call of the ayes and noes, unless excused pursuant to Rule 24.1A. No member may change a vote without leave of the House, but such leave 11 (c) 12 shall not be granted if it affects the result or if the session in which the vote was taken has been 13 adjourned. 14 RULE 24.1A. Excuse From Deliberations and Voting on a Bill. – (a) Any member 15 shall, upon request, be excused in advance from the deliberations and voting on a particular bill 16 at any time that the reason for the request arises in the proceedings on the bill. 17 The member may make a brief oral statement of the reasons for making the (b) 18 request. The member shall provide to the Principal Clerk, on a form provided by the Clerk, a 19 concise written statement of the reason for the request, and the Clerk shall include this statement 20 in the Journal. 21 (c) Except as provided in subsection (e) of this rule, the member so excused shall 22 not debate the bill or any amendment to the bill, vote on the bill, offer or vote on any amendment 23 to the bill, or offer or vote on any motion concerning the bill, in committee or on the floor of the 24 House at any reading, or any subsequent consideration of the bill. 25 A member may request that his or her excuse from deliberations on a (d) 26 particular bill be withdrawn. 27 By leave of the House, a member who has been excused from deliberations (e) 28 and voting on a bill may participate in deliberations and votes on amendments to which that 29 member does not have any conflict that requires excusal. 30 RULE 24.1B. Division of Amendments and Questions. – (a) Any member may call 31 for an amendment to be divided into two or more amendments to be voted on separately. The 32 motion shall be in writing, must be submitted to the Principal Clerk at the time the motion is 33 made, and must clearly state how the question is to be divided. The Speaker shall determine 34 whether the amendment admits of such a division. Upon a majority vote of the members present 35 and voting, the motion shall be adopted and the body shall debate and vote each amendment 36 separately. 37 (b) Any member may call for a bill to be divided into two or more propositions to 38 be voted on separately, provided the bill is subject to division into separate parts so that each part 39 states a separate and distinct proposition capable of standing alone. The motion shall be in 40 writing, must be submitted to the Principal Clerk at the time the motion is made, and must clearly state how the question is to be divided. The Speaker shall then determine whether the bill admits 41 42 of such a division. Upon a majority vote of the members present and voting, the motion shall be 43 adopted and there shall be no further amendment or debate as to further division of the distinct 44 propositions. If the question is divided, the body shall debate and vote each proposition 45 separately. If any proposition fails, the bill shall be removed from the calendar and re-referred to 46 the committee from which the bill was reported. If all parts of the divided question pass, the 47 Speaker shall announce that the entire measure has passed second or third reading. No conference 48 report and no Current Operations Appropriations Bill is eligible to be divided under this 49 subsection.

1 2 3 4	RULE 25. Voting by Speaker. – In all elections, the Speaker may vote. In all other instances, the Speaker may vote or may reserve this right until there is a tie, in which event the Speaker may vote; but in no instance may the Speaker vote twice on the same question. V. Committees

6	RULE 26. Standing Committees Generally. $-$ (a) The Speaker shall appoint a chair, or cochairs, of every standing committee, and select committee, if any. In the construction of
7	these rules, the word "chair," as applied to a committee, extends to and includes a cochair of the 8	committee. The Speaker shall have the exclusive right and authority to establish select
9	committees, but this does not exclude the right of the House by resolution to establish select
10	committees.
11	(b) The Speaker shall establish the number of members of each standing
12	committee and appoint the members in a manner to reflect the partisan membership of the House,
13	except that the Committee on Ethics shall have an equal number of members of the majority and
14	minority.
15	(c) Before appointing members of committees, the Speaker shall consult with the 16	Minority Leader. The Speaker and Minority Leader shall consider members' committee
17	preferences in making appointments and recommendations.
18	(d) The Chair of the Committee on Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House,
19	the Speaker Pro Tempore, the Majority Leader, and the Deputy Majority Leader are ex officio
20	members of each standing committee with the right to vote. The previous sentence does not apply
21	to the Standing Committee on Ethics. Up to two chairs of the Appropriations Committee are
22	entitled to vote in all other Appropriations Committees (Capital, Education, General
23	Government, Health and Human Services, Information Technology, Justice and Public Safety,
24	Agriculture and Natural and Economic Resources, and Transportation).
25	(e) Either the chair or acting chair, designated by the chair or by the Speaker, and
26	five other members of the standing committee, or a majority of the standing committee,
27	whichever is fewer, shall constitute a quorum of that standing committee. A quorum of less than 28	a majority of all the members must include at least one member of the minority party. For
29	purposes of determining a quorum, the Chair of the Standing Committee on Rules, Calendar, and
30	Operations of the House, the Speaker Pro Tempore, the Majority Leader, and the Deputy
31	Majority Leader, when serving only as ex officio members under subsection (d) of this rule, shall
32	be counted among the membership of the committee only when present.
33	(f) In any joint meeting of the Senate and House committees, the House standing
34 25	committee reserves the right to vote separately.

37	if the peace, good order, and proper conduct of the legislative business is hindered by any person
38 39	or persons, the chair or presiding officer shall have power to exclude from the session any
40	individual or individuals so hindering the legislative business.
41	(d) Procedure in the standing committees shall be governed by the rules of the 42	House, so far as the same may be applicable to such procedure. Before a question is put, any

44	sustained by one-fifth of the members present and standing, the question shall be decided by the
45	ayes and noes upon a roll call vote. All roll call votes shall be taken alphabetically and shall be
46	subject to Rule 21(c).
47	(d1) The committee chair shall set the agenda for each committee meeting. After
48	April 1, 2023, a committee may, provided there is a written request signed by at least two-thirds

5	a pro forma session. Standing committees shall meet at their regularly scheduled hour. Standing
6	committees may meet at other times as authorized by the Chair of the Standing Committee on
7	Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House in order to assure the availability of the meeting
8	room and that no conflicts will exist with the meetings of other bodies. Except for a meeting of
9	a standing committee for which the Speaker has given notice that the House will be at ease until
10 11	the adjournment of that standing committee, all standing committee meetings shall adjourn no
11	later than: (1) 15 minutes preceding a regular session of the House, and
12	 (1) 15 minutes preceding a regular session of the House, and (2) 10 minutes preceding the hour of the next regularly scheduled standing
13 14	committee meeting.
15	Action taken by a committee in violation of this rule is voidable unless taken by

20	days prior to such meeting. If a member of the body so requests in writing to the chair of the 21	standing committee, the member shall also be notified of the meetings by mail at a designated
22	address.
23	(h) During standing committee meetings, the chair may exercise the right to vote,
24	or may reserve this right until there is a tie, in which event the chair may vote, but in no instance
25	may the chair vote twice on the same question.

31	(b) If, after such preliminary investigation as it may make, the Committee
32	determines to proceed with an inquiry into the conduct of any individual, the Committee shall
33	notify the individual as to the fact of the inquiry and the charges against the individual and shall
34	schedule one or more hearings on the matter. The individual shall have the right to present
35	evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and be represented by counsel at any hearings.

If no sponsors 21 remain on the bill, the House Principal Clerk shall notify the Chair of the Standing Committee on Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House who may request that other members sponsor 22 23 the bill. Removal of the first primary sponsor's name from a bill does not reduce the total number 24 of bills introduced by the member under Rule 31.1(g), and sponsorship of a bill after removal of 25 all sponsors is subject to Rule 31.1(g).

RULE 60. Correcting of Typographical Errors. – The Legislative Services Officer may correct typographical errors appearing in House bills or resolutions or House amendments to Senate bills provided that such corrections are made before ratification and do not conflict with any actions or rules of the Senate and provided further that such correction be approved by the Chair of the Standing Committee on Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House, the Speaker, or other presiding officer.

RULE 61. Assignment of Seats. – After initial assignment of seats, a member shall continue to occupy the seat to which initially assigned until assigned a permanent seat; once assigned a permanent seat, the member shall occupy it for the entire biennial session.
