Representative Greene

moves to amend the bill on page 2, lines 11-20, by rewriting those lines to read:

"(7a) Prior express written consent. – An agreement that satisfies all the following conditions:

a. It is in writing.

b. It bears the signature of the person called that clearly authorizes the seller to deliver or cause to be delivered to the person called telephone solicitations. The term 'signature' includes an electronic or digital form of signature, to the extent that such form of signature is recognized as a valid signature under applicable federal law or State law.

c. It includes the telephone number to which the signatory authorizes such telephone solicitations to be delivered.

d. It includes a clear and conspicuous disclosure informing the person signing both of the following:

1. By executing the agreement, such person authorizes the seller to deliver or cause to be delivered to the signatory telephone solicitations.

2. The person is not required to sign the agreement (directly or indirectly) or agree to enter into such an agreement as a condition of purchasing any property, goods, or services."
