Representative Dahle

1 moves to amend the bill on page 386, lines 35-45, by rewriting those lines to read:

2 "DOA ASSIGN OFFICE SPACE IN ALBEMARLE BUILDING TO STATE BOARD OF 3 ELECTIONS

4 SECTION 22.6.(a) The Department of Administration shall assign the sixth and 5 seventh floors of the Albemarle Building located in Raleigh, North Carolina, to the State Board
6 of Elections. All State-owned equipment, furnishings, and other fixtures on the sixth and seventh 7 floors of the Albemarle Building on the date this section becomes effective shall remain on those 8 floors for use by the State Board of Elections. Nothing in this section shall be construed as 9 prohibiting the disposal, removal, or replacement of the equipment, furnishings, and other
10 fixtures described in this section after the State Board of Elections has moved into the space 11 described in this section.

12 SECTION 22.6.(b) This section shall not become effective until the lawsuit brought 13 by the former and current Governor of the State of North Carolina against the Speaker of the 14 House of Representatives, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and the State of North 15 Carolina over the authority to appoint the Board of Elections and related matters has been finally 16 adjudicated. This section is void and shall have no effect if the court determines that the State
17 Board of Elections shall not be moved to the Office of the State Auditor."
