| 4        | The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:  |
| 5        | SECTION 1.1. Article 16 of Chapter 95 of the General Statutes is amended by                           |
| 6        | adding a new section to read:   |
| 7        | " § 95-136.2. Third-party subpoenas to the Department.   |
| 8        | (a) The Commissioner, any current employee, or any former employee of the Department           |
| 9        | may only be required to appear and testify regarding an occupational safety and health inspection     |
| 10       | under one of the following circumstances:   |
| 11       | (1) An enforcement proceeding is brought under this Article.                                   |
| 12       | (2) An action is filed in which the Department is a party.                                     |
| 13       | (3) The Commissioner consents in writing to waive the exemption provided by                    |

| 1920 | c. A significant injustice would occur if the requested testimony was notavailable.        |
| 21       | (b) Except as provided in subsection (a) of this section, the Commissioner, any current               |
| 22       | employee, and any former employee of the Department may not be subpoenaed to appear or                |
| 23       | testify for an inquiry into any occupational safety and health inspection.                            |
| 24       | (c) Any written report, citation, or investigative finding issued by the Department                   |
| 25       | pursuant to an occupational safety and health inspection shall be admissible in any judicial or       |
| 26       | administrative civil proceeding to the same extent as if the author were available to testify, unless |
| 27       | the court finds the document clearly lacks indicia of reliability or would result in manifest         |
| 28       | injustice.  |
| 29       | (d) This section does not apply to a subpoena requesting only documents or other                      |
| 30       | records."   |
| 31       | SECTION 1.2. G.S. 150B-21.5 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:                     |
| 32       | "(c1) OSHA Standard. – The Occupational Safety and Health Division of the Department                  |
| 33       | of Labor is not required to publish a notice of text in the North Carolina Register or hold a public  |
| 34       | hearing when it proposes to adopt a rule that concerns an occupational safety and health standard     |
