Committee:	House Judiciary II	Date:	March 24, 2015
Introduced by:	Rep. Boles	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H295-CSSA-17		Committee Counsel

---

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for House Bill 295 would permit the Division of Juvenile Justice of the Department of Public Safety to determine whether it is appropriate to release certain information about an escaped delinquent juvenile.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 7B-3102(a) currently requires the Division of Juvenile Justice to release the following information to the public within 24 hours of a juvenile's escape from the custody of the Division:

- For any juvenile in custody:
  - The juvenile's first name, last initial, and photograph.
  - The name and location of the institution from which the juvenile escaped, or if the escape was not from an institution, the circumstances and location of the escape.
- For any juvenile who escapes from a detention facility, secure custody, or a youth development center after having been adjudicated delinquent:
  - A statement, based on the juvenile's record, of the level of concern of the Division as to the juvenile's threat to self or to others.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 295 would allow the Division to determine whether it is appropriate to release the statement regarding the level of threat when a delinquent juvenile escapes from a detention facility, secure custody, or a youth development center. The Division would still be required to release the name, photograph and general escape information.

The bill also would clarify that the determination of the level of threat posed by the juvenile would be made by the Deputy Commissioner of Juvenile Justice or the Deputy Commissioner's designee.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.
