SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 669 would make various changes to the juvenile laws pertaining to abuse, neglect, and dependency.

CURRENT LAW: The provisions of the North Carolina Juvenile Code pertaining to abuse, neglect and dependency are contained in Subchapter I of Chapter 7B of the General Statutes.

BACKGROUND: The PCS for House Bill 669 comes as recommended by the Juvenile Code Revision Subcommittee of the North Carolina Court Improvement Project.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 adds definitions of "Department" and "Nonrelative kin" to G.S. 7B-101.

Section 2 of the PCS addresses the standing of a foster parent to intervene in certain juvenile proceedings.

Section 3 authorizes a nonsecure custody order to be entered ex parte, and sets out certain notice provisions.

Section 4 of the PCS requires each county's child welfare agency ("department") to make diligent efforts to notify relatives and custodial parents of the juvenile's siblings that the juvenile is in nonsecure custody, unless not in the juvenile's best interest.

Section 5 creates a new G.S. 7B-505.1, that clarifies the authority the department has to authorize specified medical and dental care when a juvenile is placed in nonsecure custody. This section addresses notice and consent requirements, and provides immunity to the department's director under specified circumstances.

Section 6 makes a conforming change.

Section 7 addresses the contents of a court order placing or continuing the placement of a juvenile in the nonsecure custody of the department.

Section 8 makes a conforming change.

Section 9 specifies the circumstances under which a department is not required to make reasonable efforts for reunification.

Section 10 modifies G.S. 7B-903, relating to dispositional alternatives available to the court.

Section 11 adds a new section to Article 9 of Chapter 7B of the General Statutes that cross-references new G.S. 7B-505.1 (see Section 5 of the PCS), and allows a placement provider to provide or withhold permission to allow a juvenile to participate in normal childhood activities as specified.
