Introduced by:	Reps. Jordan, Glazier, McGrady, Avila	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 879 would make various changes to the juvenile code in regard to due process protections, reentry of juveniles in the delinquency system, and confinement of juveniles.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Part I. Due Process

Section 1.1 would increase the age requirement for a juvenile's parent to be present during interrogation from 14 to 16 years old.

Sections 1.2 & 1.3 would clarify that an adjudicatory hearing is a separate hearing from a probable cause or transfer hearing and may be continued for good cause.

Section 1.4 would codify the process for a motion to suppress evidence.

Part II. Reentry

Section 2.1 would require juvenile court counselors to make reasonable efforts to meet with a juvenile who has not had a previous complaint and who has had a complaint filed for a divertable offense.

Section 2.2 would clarify that the district attorney may dismiss any allegations stated in a juvenile petition, with or without leave, either orally in open court, or in writing with notice.

Section 2.3 would clarify what prior adjudications count in determining delinquency history level.

Section 2.4 would clarify extension of probation must have notice and a hearing and would allow extension after the period of probation has ended if the juvenile fails to appear in court. This section would also clarify that in modifying a disposition for violation of probation, the court may order disposition at the next higher level, but is not required to do so.

Section 2.5 would require the court to provide notice of the ability to expunge juvenile offenses, if applicable.

Section 2.6 would allow a juvenile to expunge adjudications for Class 1, 2, or 3 misdemeanors at age 16 or 18 months after release from juvenile court jurisdiction, whichever is later, rather than having to wait until age 18 as required for all other offenses.

Part III. Juvenile confinement

Section 3.1 would clarify that secure custody review hearings must be conducted every 10 days so long as the juvenile remains in secure custody pending disposition or placement pursuant to a disposition order. Any order for secure custody would be required to include findings of fact that include the evidence relied upon in reaching the decision and the purposes the secure custody is to achieve.

This section would also require that a juvenile under the age of 10 being transported for medical or psychiatric treatment while in secure custody, not be transported in physical restraints if they have no delinquency charge, unless it is reasonably necessary for the safety of the officer or authorized person and the juvenile.

Section 3.2 would clarify that only the court may order intermittent periods of confinement for a delinquent juvenile.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2015, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.
