

SENATE BILL 462: Change Name of UNC General Administration.

2017-2018 General Assembly

Committee:		Date:	June 6, 2018
Introduced by:	Sens. Barefoot, Curtis, Daniel	Prepared by:	Drupti Chauhan
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

OVERVIEW: Senate Bill 462 would change the name of The University of North Carolina General Administration to The University of North Carolina System Office throughout the General Statutes.

CURRENT LAW: The General Statutes currently refer to the central office of The University North Carolina as "The University of North Carolina General Administration".

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 462 would change the name of "The University of North Carolina General Administration" to "The University of North Carolina System Office". This change would be made through the General Statutes. The bill states that all statutory and legal authority powers, duties, functions, records, personnel, property, and unexpended balances of appropriations or other funds of The University of North Carolina General Administration remain those of The University of North Carolina System Office.

The bill further states that nothing in the bill requires the immediate replacement of any stationary, other supplies, or any emblems or other symbols used by The University of North Carolina System Office as they existed prior to the enactment of the bill. The University of North Carolina System Office must use funds within its budget to replace these items as necessary.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective July 1, 2018.
