OVERVIEW: Senate Bill 828 makes various technical, clarifying, and conforming changes to the General Statutes and Session Laws.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 828 does the following:

- Section 1 - Corrects erroneous dates included in enacting legislation.
- Section 2 – Does the following:
  - Subsection (a) – Corrects the name of the recipient of a grant-in-aid from Patriot’s Charity to the Patriot Military Family Foundation. This is necessary because Patriot's Charity merged with another nonprofit to form Patriot Military Family Foundation.
  - Subsection (b) – Revises language in the Budget Bill to provide a grant-in-aid of $15,000 to the Bryson City Fire Department for equipment upgrades instead of the Bryson City Police Department for a K-9 transport unit.
- Section 3 - Corrects issue where funds will not be released to non-State entities that do not certify that they are non-profits or exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- Section 4 - Corrects an inconsistency in the number of Assistant District Attorneys allocated to Montgomery and Stanly Counties.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law.
