OVERVIEW: Senate Bill 202 would make various changes to the laws regulating the private protective services profession and allow the relocation of ALE to suitable State-owned property identified by DPS.

CURRENT LAW: Under Chapter 74C, the Private Protective Services Board ("PPS Board") regulates professions of security guards, private investigators, guard dog service, electronic countermeasures, detection of deception examiners, courier service, armored car, and special limited guards.

- Remove "protection of individuals from serious bodily harm or death" from the definition of "private detective or private investigator."
- Expand the defined private protective services professions to include "close personal protection" and "digital forensics examination."
- Include "anyone under contract with an occupational licensing board while performing an investigation solely for that board" as a service that is not considered a private protective service.

Section 1.1A would authorize a licensed State private investigator, or permitted private investigator trainee that has provided at least five years of services to protect individuals from serious bodily harm or death within the immediate five years prior to July 1, 2021, to be issued a close personal protection endorsement.

Section 1.5 would do the following:

- Require a proprietary security organization that employs an armed security guard to be licensed and renew the license every two years.
- Provide that the PPS Board may suspend, revoke, or deny a firearm registration permit if the holder or applicant has been convicted of any crime set forth in G.S. 74C-8(d).
- Provide that the Director of the PPS Board may summarily suspend a firearm registration permit, pending resolution, if the holder is charged with any crime involving moral turpitude, any offense set forth in G.S. 74C-12, or any crime set forth in G.S. 74C-8(d).
- Provide that the PPS Board shall not knowingly issue a firearm registration permit to an individual prohibited by federal or State law from possessing a firearm.
