

HOUSE BILL 138: Adopt Wounded Heroes Day.

2021-2022 General Assembly

Committee: Senate Rules and Operations of the Senate	Date: April 14, 2021
Introduced by: Rep. Willis	Prepared by: Jonathan Zator
Analysis of: First Edition	Committee Co-Counsel

OVERVIEW: House Bill 138 would designate the twenty-fourth day of April of each year as Wounded Heroes Day in North Carolina.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S132, as introduced by Sen. Johnson, which is currently in Senate Rules and Operations of the Senate.]

CURRENT LAW: Chapter 103 of the North Carolina General Statutes designates holidays and other special days. Public holidays in North Carolina are designated in G.S. 103-4. The days, weeks, and months below have been designated for special recognition.

Days

- G.S. 103-7 designates the first Sunday in August each year as American Family Day.
- G.S. 103-9 designates the ninth of April each year as Prisoner of War Recognition Day.
- G.S. 103-10 designates the seventh of December each year as Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day.
- G.S. 103-13 designates the twenty-second of July of each year as Fragile X Awareness Day.
- G.S. 103-14 designates the second Monday in April of each year as Lineman Appreciation Day.
- G.S. 103-15 designates June 27 each year as Posttraumatic Stress Injury Awareness Day.

Weeks

- G.S. 103-6 designates the week in March of each year containing March 15 as Arbor Week.
- G.S. 103-8 designates the last full week in September as Indian Solidarity Week.

Months

- G.S. 103-11 designates October as Disability History and Awareness Month.
- G.S. 103-12 designates April as Organ Donation Awareness/Donate Life Month.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 138 would amend the Chapter that designates holidays and other special days in North Carolina to add a new statute (G.S. 103-16) declaring the twenty-fourth day of April of each year as Wounded Heroes Day.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This bill would become effective when it becomes law
