Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H544-CSCH-16		Staff Attorneys

OVERVIEW: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for House Bill 544 would criminalize causing someone under the age of eighteen years of age to be present at an exhibition featuring animal fighting.

CURRENT LAW AND BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the PCS amends G.S. 14-362, which provides a Class I felony offense for participating in an exhibition featuring cockfighting, to create an additional offense for causing a person under 18 years of age to be present at an exhibition.

Section 2 of the PCS amends G.S. 14-362.1, which provides a Class 2 misdemeanor offense for participating in an exhibition featuring the fighting or baiting of an animal other than a cock or a dog. The PCS creates an additional offense for causing a person under 18 years of age to be present at an exhibition.

Section 3 of the PCS amends G.S. 14-362.2 which provides that it is a Class H felony for participating in the baiting or fighting of a dog, to create an additional offense for causing a person under 18 years of age to be present at an exhibition.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2021 and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

BACKGROUND: The punishment ranges for the listed offenses are as follows:

Class H felony – punishable by an absolute minimum of 3 months community punishment and an absolute maximum of 39 months active punishment, depending on prior record level.

Class I felony – punishable by an absolute minimum of 3 months community punishment and an absolute maximum of 25 months active punishment, depending on prior record level.

Class 2 misdemeanor – punishable by an absolute minimum of one day community punishment and an absolute maximum of 60 days active punishment, depending on prior record level.
