2021-2022 General Assembly

Committee:	House Local Government - Land Use, Planning and Development. If favorable, refer to Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House	Date:	May 6, 2021
Introduced by:	Reps. B. Jones, Wray	Prepared by:	Billy R. Godwin Staff Attorney
Analysis of:	First Edition

OVERVIEW: House Bill 712 would prohibit local governments from imposing any subjective conditions or standards on permit approvals if the development contains affordable housing units for families or individuals with incomes below eighty percent (80%) of the area median income.

CURRENT LAW: Chapter 160D of the General Statutes contains procedures local governments utilize for development approvals under their planning and development regulations. Zoning is a type of development regulation and local governments are authorized to establish zoning districts in accordance with a comprehensive plan designed to promote the public health, safety, and general welfare. For these purposes, zoning regulations may address topics pertaining to adequacy of light and air; prevention of overcrowding; avoidance of undue population concentration; lessening street congestion; safety from fire, panic and dangers; efficient and adequate provision of transportation, water, sewerage, schools, parks, and other public requirements; and to promote the health, safety, morals, or general welfare of the community taking into consideration the district's character and peculiar suitability for particular uses.

Zoning regulations may generally regulate and restrict the height, number of stories, and size of buildings and other structures; the percentage of lots that may be occupied; the size of yards, courts, and other open spaces; the density of population; the location and use of buildings, structures, and land.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 712 would prohibit local governments from imposing any subjective conditions or standards on permit approvals if the development contains affordable housing units for families or individuals with incomes below eighty percent (80%) of the area median income.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act effective when it becomes law and applies to permit applications submitted on or after that date.
