

SENATE BILL 113: Modify Termination of Parental Rights Appeals.

2021-2022 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary. If favorable, re-refer to Rules and Operations of the Senate	Date:	March 2, 2021
Introduced by:	Sens. Britt, Sanderson, Daniel	Prepared by:	Kristen L. Harris
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S113-CSTU-1		Committee Co-Counsel

OVERVIEW: Senate Bill 113 would change the direct right of appeal from an order granting or denying a termination of parental rights from the North Carolina Supreme Court to the Court of Appeals.

CURRENT LAW AND BACKGROUND: S.L. 2017-7 and S.L. 2017-41 changed the direct right of appeal of an order that grants or denies a termination of parental rights from the Court of Appeals to the North Carolina Supreme Court.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 would remove the right to appeal a case involving an order that terminates parental rights or denies a petition or motion to terminate parental rights directly to the North Carolina Supreme Court.

Section 2 would provide a direct right of appeal to the Court of Appeals in termination of parental rights cases.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective October 1, 2021, and applies to appeals filed on or after that date.
