HOUSE BILL 113: Prohibit Renaming of Fayetteville State.

2023-2024 General Assembly

Committee:	House Education - Universities. If favorable, re-refer to Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House	Date:	March 2, 2023
Introduced by:	Reps. Pierce, Lucas, Wheatley, Charles Smith	Prepared by:	Drupti Chauhan
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H113-CSRQ-3		Staff Attorney

OVERVIEW: House Bill 113 would prohibit Fayetteville State University from being redesignated as any other name as a constituent institution of The University of North Carolina.

The Proposed Committee Substitute would make a technical change to include a cross-reference to G.S. 116-4 which sets forth the legal names of the constituent institutions of The University of North Carolina.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 116-2 sets forth the legal names of all the constituent institutions of The University of North Carolina including any re-designations that have occurred. Pembroke State University was redesignated effective July 1, 1996, as the University of North Carolina at Pembroke and the North Carolina School of the Arts was redesignated effective August 1, 2008, as the University of North Carolina School of the Arts.

BILL ANALYSIS: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 113 would prohibit Fayetteville State University from redesignated as any other name as a constituent institution of The University of North Carolina.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective when it becomes law.
