OVERVIEW: House Bill 244 would provide that only official governmental flags may be flown or displayed on property owned by the State or a political subdivision of the State. Any employee of the State or a political subdivision of the State who violates these provisions would be subject to disciplinary action, including termination from employment. The act would become effective October 1, 2025, and would apply to violations occurring on or after that date.

CURRENT LAW: A flag of the United States of America or the State of North Carolina that is displayed by a State institution or a political subdivision of the State on the premises of a building of a State institution or a political subdivision of the State must be handled, displayed, stored, and respectfully disposed of in accordance with the federal Flag Code, 4 U.S.C. §§ 1-10. G.S. 144-5(b).

A county, city, consolidated city-county, or unified government must not prohibit an official governmental flag from being flown or displayed if the flag is flown or displayed: (1) in accordance with the patriotic customs in the flag code and (2) upon private or public property with the consent of either the owner of the property or of any person having lawful control of the property. G.S. 144-7. "Official governmental flag" includes: the United States flag, the flag of nations recognized by the United States, the State flag, the flag of any territory of the United States, and the flag of any political subdivision or territory of the United States.

To protect the public health, safety, and welfare, reasonable restrictions on flag size, number of flags, location, and height of flagpoles are not prohibited, if these restrictions do not discriminate against any official governmental flag. G.S. 144-7(b).

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 would provide that any official governmental flag that is displayed by a State institution or a political subdivision of the State must comply with the federal Flag Code.

Section 2 would make conforming changes.

Section 3 would provide that only the following official governmental flags may be flown or displayed by a State institution or a political subdivision of the State anywhere on the premises owned by a State institution or political subdivision of the State:

- The flag of the United States of America.
- The flag of the State of North Carolina.
- The flag of a county, city, or other governmental agency, school, or other educational facility.
