Division Staff

Section 24 of S.L. 2025-47 (Senate Bill 391) amends the current authorization of commercial driver training schools to administer road tests for persons at least 16 years old but less than 18 years old to clarify that the road tests must meet requirements and standards of road tests administered by the Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV). It also requires the DMV to adopt forms for administering the tests and reporting results to the DMV and authorizes the DMV to adopt rules and policies implementing the section.

This section became effective July 1, 2025.
